Forecast for Sunday 27 Nov 2022

Weather: Some sharp showers in early hours, then dry with clear spells. Then a bright and mostly dry day, but generally cloudy, with large amounts of high cloud keeping sunshine hazy and a few showers will pepper western hills. Becoming cloudier in the late afternoon with occasionally heavy and perhaps thundery showers after dusk and perhaps sleet or snow on the higher tops.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 20 or 30% in early hours and again from late afternoon, otherwise generally 80%

Low Cloud and visibility: Mostly good visibility for much of the day with only patchy cloud at summit level, but perhaps poor in showers early in the night and again later in the day, when also very poor at height with accompanying cloud generally extensive above 500m.

Meteorologist's View

Some chill affect at height with strong winds and showers

Forecast for Monday 28 Nov 2022

Weather: Some showers overnight, then bright or sunny spells and showers, heavy and perhaps thundery at times with snow possible on the summits, but lighter and more confined to western parts in the evening, though low cloud may form.

Maximum wind: South or southwest 25-35 gust 45mph at first but easing 15mph in morning then turning west or northwest in afternoon.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 30-50%, with best chance in east later

Low Cloud and visibility: Good visibility out of showers, but moderate or poor in showers and very poor where in cloud with broken occasionally extensive cloud above 700m, but 500m near showers. Risk of banks of cloud forming between 300 and 450m in the evening.

Temperature: Valleys: Plus 6 C rising to 10 C
At 800m: Plus 2 or 3 C
Freezing level: Around 1000m at first, then 1400m
